With grace and hope, Downtown Los Angeles welcomed 2017. As Grand Park hosted the annual N.Y.E.L.A with our iconic City Hall projecting the final countdown, Perch LA hosted a celebration nestled in their breathtaking rooftop, and Little Easy rang in the New Year with a special NYE Red Dress Party.

The Historic Core BID remains committed to improving the quality of life of residents, property and business owners and look forward to our continued partnership with each and every one of you. We wish everyone a year filled with much success and look forward to our continued work together!

Night on Broadway returns to the Historic Core on Saturday January 28th, 2017, celebrating the 9th anniversary of Councilmember Jose Huizar's Bringing Back Broadway Initiative. Please join us!

This years Night on Broadway promises to be even bigger than last years production, which reportedly drew over 60,000 people to our exciting neighborhood.

In traditional fashion, the event will close seven city blocks between 3rd and Olympic, making way for the fastest growing, one-day music and art festival in North America. The festival will include 8 stages with live entertainment, food and art vendors, a children's zone and the activation of 6 historic Broadway theaters. Virginia Woolf was once quoted saying "one cannot think well, love well, sleep well, if one has not dined well." Luckily, the Historic Core has always been graced with exceptional eateries catering to all sorts of cravings, whether we're looking for a lunch break, Taco-Tuesday grab at Guisados or wanting to indulge in the unique "steak on a stone" prime cut of beef cooked at your table at Artisan House, it is safe to say that there is an option for every taste bud.

The Historic Core BID is proud to share and congratulate the restaurants included in the acclaimed 2016 Jonathan Gold's 101 Best Restaurants. Joining the list representing the Historic Core is Orsa & Winston, Bäco Mercat and the one and only, Nickel Diner. For the complete list of restaurants, click here and make sure to book your table in advance.

Foot Action\Kicks Lounge is now open on Broadway and 8th, featuring Fresh Active Wear and Culture Kicks.

Keep in the know of art, culture, civic events and more with our local DTLA Events Calendar.

The Nickel Market is a weekly street market that takes place every Sunday from 9am to 2pm on 5th and Spring in the Historic Core, featuring local craft, fashion and art vendors. This market is an expanded concept of the Farmers Market and is directly adjacent to it, helping drive foot traffic and providing visually appealing activations on 5th Street. According to LAPD, the Nickel Market has also done its part to suppress crime on the block during hours of operation, which is a proven benefit of street activation. Please visit and support this neighborhood market by shopping local and by spreading the word to potentially interested vendors! For more information and vendor inquiries, click here.

After closing in observance of Christmas Day and New Year's Day, the Historic Downtown Farmers Market is back with regular hours, every Sunday on 5th Street between Broadway and Spring. Over the past year, the Farmers Market has increased its presence within the Historic Core and brightened the neighborhood with free entertainment for locals and visitors, while promoting local vendors and growers. Our Farmers Market was named 2015's "Best Farmers Market" by the Downtown News and is undoubtedly growing with the support of new visitors and locals alike. If you are a musician interested in performing, there is some pay so please contact us for more details!
